

Sustainable Harbrough Community
Summary of Volunteering Opportunities
(National Organisations)

Organisations	Volunteering Opportunities
Canals & Rivers Trust https://canalrivertrust.org.uk/volunteer/ways-to-volunteer	Tow path and lock volunteer work, supporting Open Days, office work, acting as an Ambassador
National Parks https://www.nationalparks.uk/volunteering/	heritage surveys, ecology work, and visitor support, ranger support
National Trust https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/volunteer	Room guides in NT properties, working in gardens of NT properties, conservation activities in coastal and countryside environments
RSPB https://www.rspb.org.uk/get-involved/volunteering-fundraising/	Visitor engagement, conservation work on a reserve
Surfers Against Sewage https://www.sas.org.uk/take-action/volunteer-with-us/	Organizing or taking part in a beach clean, helping to pack our free Million Mile Clean kits
The Rivers Trust https://theriverstrust.org/take-action/volunteer-opportunities	River clean ups, habitat creation, invasive species removal, fish barrier removal, water quality testing
Welland Rivers Trust http://www.wellandriverstrust.org.uk/	River Wardens, conservation and restoration work
Wildlife Trust https://www.wildlifetrusts.org/closer-to-nature/volunteer	Community gardening, species surveying (such as looking for otters!), caring for nature reserves, plant identification and GPS mapping. You can even run Wildlife Watch groups
Woodland Trust https://www.woodlandtrust.org.uk/support-us/act/volunteer-with-us/	Joining working groups in woodlands, acting as a welcomer for visitors, becoming a Woodland Warder
WWF https://www.wwf.org.uk/events/volunteer#volunteer-roles	Support for fundraising activity at large events around the country – Cheer Squad Champions, Meet & Greet Crew, Massage Therapist, Photographer